202. Plate 75. Birds, snakes, and some insects, from the Sculptures.
277. Plate 76. Coronation of the king. (Vide Vol. III. p. 287.) On fig. G. 18. see the procession given from Clemens in p. 279., "persons bearing loaves of bread." From fig. H. 3. it appears that the statue of the reigning king is indicated by one of the royal caps ; the same occurs in the upper line of statues, though not at L. 13.
280. Plate 77. 1. Pouring emblems of life and purity over the king ; and 2. Anointing the statue of a God.

other emblems. On the right of the picture is the king Remeses the Great, standing in the form of Pthah under a shrine, which seems to represent one of the avenues between the central and lateral columns of the Hall of Assembly. He holds in his hand a palm branch with a frog the emblem of years with incipient life; and over the arm which holds forth the sign of Life is the representative of the God Ombte. The palm branch is again repeated, behind which the jackal of Anubis (or of Macedo?) stands on a perch, supported by the emblem of Life, accompanied by a sacred symbol usually bore in great processions, also on a perch held up by arms proceeding from the emblem of Purity. The Goddess Milt, standing on the golden house, stretches forth her hand towards the king as he runs forward; the whole being apparently connected with the Panegyries or Great Assemblies, which were held in the temple, and over which the sovereign presided. The God himself is sometimes introduced, into whose presence the king is shown to be hastening; and the dedication of the temple frequently appears to be connected with part of the ceremony, as though it recorded the anniversary of its erection. The king here wears the cap of Lower Egypt; but on the corresponding side of the doorway, over which this subject is sculptured, he has that of the Upper Country: where, in lieu of Ombte, is Hor-Hat, and the vulture of Eilethya is substituted for the asp of the Genius of Lower Egypt.

293. Plate 80. Investiture of a chief to the office of fan-bearer by putting gold necklaces round his neck. This calls to mind the arraying of Joseph in vestures of fine linen, and putting a gold chain about his neck. The king is Osirei, the father of Remeses the Great. He is seated under a canopy, holding the flagellum and crook of Osiris; and behind him is the Goddess of Truth or Justice.

343. Plate 81. A King slaying the enemies of Egypt.

363. Plate 82. Various offerings presented to the Gods. Fig. 1. The king crowned with the pschent, or double crown of Upper and Lower Egypt, presents incense to Re. A vase of libation and flowers are on the altar. Fig. 2. A peculiar ceremony, signifying the dedication of part of a temple. (Vide Woodcut, No. 470. p. 276.) Fig. 3. The king, wearing the crown of Upper Egypt, presents incense and libation; and the queen, fig. 4., holds forth two emblems of the office of the Pallacides, for which are often substituted two sistra. Figs. 8. and 9. The king kneeling presents silver images of his ancestors, which bear various offerings.

410. Plate 83. Great funeral procession of a royal scribe at Thebes. The beginning of this procession is in line 3., where persons bring various offerings, and a calf to be killed for the use of the poor. Then follow others bearing small closets for the statues of the Gods, or the ancestors of the deceased, chairs, tables, couches, and a chariot; next comes a led chariot; and in the 2d line are other persons carrying vases, boxes, images, insignia of office, fans, and other objects, together with a boat. In the uppermost line are the bearers of cases covered with palm branches; then female mourners, and a chest containing a sitting Cynocephalus on a sledge, followed by a high priest; after which is the coffin on a sledge, decked as usual with flowers; the procession closing with the friends or male relatives of the deceased. In the lowest line the funeral is supposed to pass over the lake. On the top of the cabin is the case containing the Cynocephalus; and in the small boat are the figures of the deceased and his sister seated under a canopy with a table of offerings before them, while a priest reads their eulogium, to show their claims to admission to the regions of the just. Having landed on the other side of the lake, the priest presents offerings, with incense and libation, before the mummies; and the female mourners throw dust upon their heads in token of grief.

415. Plate 84. Funeral procession crossing the Lake of the Dead at Thebes, and going thence to the tomb. The first boat (beginning on the left) contains the coffin, decked with flowers. A high priest presents incense before a table of offerings, and the females of the family lament the loss of their relative. This is preceded by two other boats, one having on board the female mourners, the other the male friends of the deceased; and two more contain persons, employed to carry offerings, boxes, chairs, and other objects appertaining to the procession. In one of them, at the upper part of the picture, are several men, who attended the funeral out of friendship and respect to the family, the same who follow the coffin in Plate 83. On arriving at the opposite shore, one of these boats has grounded; and being pushed back has struck a small skiff with its rudder, upsetting a table upon the rowers: one of the many proofs of the fondness of the Egyptians for caricature even in serious subjects. All matters being adjusted, the procession lands on the western shore of the lake, and proceeds to the necropolis, where the mummy is set up in the sepulchre of his ancestors. The high priest again offers incense and libation on an altar before the tomb,—a place where stone altars are frequently found; and prayers and lamentation for the deceased are offered by his assembled relatives and friends.

419. Plate 85. Another funeral procession to the tomb beneath the mountain of the Theban Necropolis. Figs. 3. and 4. are the same as mentioned in p. 418.; fig. 6. the sprinkler; fig. 9. holds the emblem alluded to in p. 386. Anubis, fig. 13., the type of Death, supports the mummy. Behind him is the tablet, or tombstone, mentioned in p. 481.; and fig. 15. is the tomb itself, at the end of the mountain, fig. 16.
421. Plate 86. A procession, in which palm branches are strewn in the way. Figs. 8. and 10. are two tables of offerings for the deceased and his wife, whose mummies, figs. 13. and 15., are attended by their relations. Among the offerings on the table, fig. 8., are the emblems mentioned in p. 386. Over the table is a napkin.
447. Plate 87. A soul condemned to return to earth under the form of a pig; having been weighed in the scales before Osiris, and "found wanting." Being placed in a boat, and accompanied by two monkeys, it is then dismissed from the precincts of Amenti, all communication with which is figuratively cut off by a man who hews away the ground with an axe after its passage.

448. Plate 88. Final judgment scene before Osiris, the judge of the dead, previous to the admission of the soul into the mansions of the blessed. Osiris is seated on his throne, attended by Isis and Nephthys; and before him are the Four Genii of Amenti standing on a lotus. Horus introduces the deceased, after his actions have been weighed in the scales of Truth, and recorded by Thoth. Anubis presides over the balance; and Cerberus is present, seated at the gates, into which the deceased is conducted by Horus, followed by his sister, who was probably also his wife.

THE FOLLOWING

I.

BIBLICAL RESEARCHES IN PALESTINE, MOUNT SINAI, AND ARABIA PETRÆA, being a Journal of Travels in the year 1838, undertaken in reference to Biblical Geography. By the Rev. Dr. ROBINSON and the Rev. ELI SMITH. Drawn up from Notes made on the spot, with Historical Illustrations by EDWARD ROBINSON, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature in the New York Theological Seminary, and Author of "A Greek and English Lexicon of the New Testament." With Maps and Plans of Jerusalem, Palestine, and Mount Sinai, from original Measurements and Observations, in five sheets. 3 vols. 8vo.

"The Work on Palestine by the Rev. Dr. Robinson is very different from the hasty Journals hitherto published by many Tourists in the same region. It is the result of studies connected with long preparation, and of an important enterprise in behalf of a deeper scientific investigation of the geographical, historical, and antiquarian relations of the Holy Land. This enterprise has been happily carried out upon the spot under the most favourable circumstances; and the work thus resulting from it, with its historical illustrations, has been prepared with the aid of the richest literary means, and will certainly occupy one of the most important places among the sources for the study of the geography and antiquities of the Scriptures."

"This work, by its numerous discoveries and new investigations, will be of lasting value for the knowledge of the East, and for the historical part of theological study. It contains in itself the materials for an entire transformation of the Cartography of Palestine; hitherto so defective, as is proved by the very important maps already constructed, founded on the new observations afforded by this journey. These as an accompaniment to the text, give the latter a peculiar value which can be regarded only as highly desirable."—Professor Carl Ritter of Berlin.

"These Spanish Ballads are known to our public, but generally with inconceivable advantage, by the very fine and animated translations of Mr. Lockhart."
—Hallam's Literary History of Europe.

"We gladly hail the republication of Mr. Lockhart's translations, which have been selected by him with excellent judgment, and translated with unusual vigour, animation, and fidelity. Rich as is our own literature in these ancient reliques, they cannot compete with those of the Peninsula in number, importance, or antiquity."—London and Westminster Review.

You cannot imagine the pleasurable excitement of discovering in these cities the works of art, and objects of the highest interest to the archaeologist. The age is probably earlier than the fourth century before the Christian era, and the works are illustrative of Homer and Herodotus."—Letter from the Author to THE ATHENÆUM.

WORKS HAVE RECENTLY BEEN PUBLISHED.

I.

THE DISPATCHES AND CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON. Edited by LIEUT.-COLONEL GURWOOD.
12 Vols. 8vo, 20s. each, and Index, 10s.

II.

THE HISTORY OF THE POPES OF ROME during the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries. Derived principally from unpublished Documents and Records preserved at Vienna, Venice, Rome, and Bologna. By LEOPOLD VON RANKE. Translated by SARAH AUSTIN. 3 vols. 8vo, 36s.

"To the high qualifications of profound research, careful accuracy, great fairness and candour, with a constant reference to the genius and spirit of each successive age, common to the historians of Germany, Mr. Ranke adds the charm of a singularly lucid, terse, and agreeable style."—Quarterly Review.

"It is hardly necessary for us to say, that this is an excellent book, excellently translated. The original work of Professor Ranke is known and esteemed wherever German literature is studied; and has been found interesting even in a most inaccurate and dishonest French version. It is, indeed, the work of a mind fitted both for minute researches and for large speculations. It is written also in an admirable spirit, equally remote from levity and bigotry; serious and earnest, yet tolerant and impartial. It is, therefore, with the greatest pleasure that we now see it take its place among the English Classics. Of the translation we need only say, that it is such as might be expected from the skill, the taste, and the scrupulous integrity of the accomplished lady, who, as an interpreter between the mind of Germany and the mind of Britain, has already deserved so well of both countries."—Edinburgh Review.

"With Mrs. Austin for a translator of his work Mr. Ranke has been far more happy, and we cannot praise too highly the simplicity and elegance of the English into which she has rendered the original text. She has put us in possession of a book extraordinary for its learning and impartiality, and for its just and liberal views of the times and men it describes. The best compliment that can be paid to Mr. Ranke is, that each side has accused him of partiality to its opponent—the German Protestants complaining that his work is written in too Catholic a spirit—the Catholics declaring, that generally impartial as he is, it is clear to perceive the Protestant tendency of the history."—Times.

III.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE LITERARY HISTORY OF EUROPE in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Centuries. By HENRY HALLAM, Esq. 4 vols. 8vo, 15s. each.

"We must remember that this is the first great general map or chart of the intellectual world attempted in this country. To all lovers of literature it will be acceptable; to the young, we conceive, invaluable. We almost wish that we could renew our own youth, in order to profit by its instructions; it would have prevented us from reading a vast number of very bad books, and induced us, perhaps, to read some good ones."—Quarterly Review.

"We have delayed for a long time to notice this great work, the most important contribution to literary history which English libraries have received for many years; and our excuse for the delay must be found in the high character of the author, as well as the importance of the subject. Even for the purpose of the very brief observations which we can hazard, an attentive study of its contents was more than usually necessary."—Edinburgh Review.

IV.

MEMOIRS AND LETTERS OF SIR SAMUEL ROMILLY ; with his POLITICAL DIARY. Edited by his SONS. Portrait, &c. Second Edition. 3 vols. 8vo, 30s.

From M. Dumont of Geneva to Sir Samuel Romilly's Executor.

"There is, I think, no other work of this kind which could produce the same moral effects upon a youthful mind. On one side one sees great talents, great reputation, and ample fortune; and, on the other, an obscure origin, scarcely any education, years lost,—and all these disadvantages overcome by unwearied application, and by efforts constantly directed towards the same end. It is a lesson composed entirely of facts, worth more than volumes of moral sentiments; to which none of those pretences, by which young people commonly reconcile to themselves their own nothingness, can be suggested as an answer.... A charm, too, is spread over the whole work, and it leaves in the mind a feeling of affection for the author; and this because he displays himself without pretension, and because the picture he draws relates only to those moral feelings, those private virtues, which every one can imitate, and to that domestic life, the happiness of which, as it is derived from the purest and most amiable feelings, creates jealousy in the breast of no one. Mere men of the world will probably disbelieve it: in their eyes it will appear a romance, but one that will not offend them; and, by the middling ranks, the most numerous class of society, these memoirs will be read with the same feeling as that which dictated their composition."

V.

GIBBON'S HISTORY OF THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE. An entirely New Edition, edited, with Notes, by the Rev. H. H. MILMAN, and illustrated with original Historical Maps.
12 vols. 8vo, 9s. each.

"I felt that this book, in spite of its faults, will always be a noble work—and that we may correct the Author's errors and combat his prejudices, without ceasing to admit that few men have combined, if we are not to say in so high a degree, at least in a manner so complete and so well regulated, the necessary qualifications for a writer of history."—Guisot.

"There can be no question that this edition of Gibbon is the only one extant to which Parents and Guardians and Academic Authorities ought to give any measure of countenance."—Quarterly Review.

"Gibbon's History, especially as edited by Mr. Milman, is a work for all time and for all classes. It never before was a work which could be safely put into the hands of the young, or of those whose opportunities and means for detecting its perversions were few. Now, however, the errors of this luminous and imposing history have been skilfully and convincingly noted. The poison, if not extracted, has been made palpable."—Monthly Review.

VI.

THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND, from the Death of Queen Anne to the Reign of George II. By LORD MAHON. Second Edition, 3 vols.
8vo, 36s.

"Lord Mahon has shewn throughout excellent skill in combining, as well as contrasting, the various elements of interest which his materials afforded; he has drawn his historical portraits with a firm and easy hand, and no one can lay down the book without feeling that he has been under the guidance of a singularly clear, high-principled, and humane mind; one uniting a very searching shrewdness with a pure and unaffected charity. The author has shewn equal courage, judgment, and taste, in availing himself of minute details, so as to give his narrative the picturesqueness of a memoir, without sacrificing one jot of the real dignity of history."—Quarterly Review.

VII.

THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY, from the Birth of Christ to the Extinction of Paganism in the Roman Empire. By the Rev. H. H. MILMAN. 3 vols. 8vo, 36s.

"Evinces great research and exhibiting profound knowledge of the subject, it breathes a spirit of peace and tolerance and conciliation which are or ought to be the characteristics of all ministers of the gospel.

"We see nothing in Mr. Milman's indulgent views beyond those which the most orthodox minister may take, nor are his opinions anything which the high churchman may not conscientiously and consistently maintain."—John Bull.

VIII.

THE CORRESPONDENCE OF WILLIAM PITT, FIRST EARL OF CHATHAM. Edited by WM. STANHOPE TAYLOR and JOHN HENRY PRINGLE, Esquires, Executors of his Son, John Earl of Chatham. 4 vols. 8vo, 18s. each.

"There is hardly any man in modern times, with the exception perhaps of Lord Somers, who fills so large a space in our history, and of whom we know so little, as Lord Chatham; and yet he is the person to whom every one would at once point, if desired to name the greatest statesman and orator that this country ever produced.

"We regard this work, indeed, as one of the greatest value; and hold the editors to have formed a wise resolution, both as to their own duty, and the best service they could render at once to the memory of their illustrious ancestor, and to the public interests, by determining to keep back no part of the precious documents entrusted to their care."—Edinburgh Review.

IX.

CAIRO, PETRA, AND DAMASCUS, DESCRIBED. From original Notes made during a Tour in those Countries in 1839. By JOHN G. KINNAR, Esq., of Glasgow. Post 8vo, 9s. 6d.

"Mr. Kinnear, a recent traveller, and, like most travellers, a little biased in favour of Mehmet, but a sensible, and on the whole a fair witness."—Quarterly Rev.

"Mr. Kinnear's Narrative is short, pleasant, and interesting, and we find ourselves, when we close his book, in a tolerable state of familiarity with Eastern manners."—Times.

"This volume is of a very agreeable and lively character. Competently read, especially in the Bible, and possessing a good deal of native shrewdness and judgment, Mr. Kinnear has stamped upon his page the charm of simplicity and utility."—Spectator.

"Mr. Kinnear accompanied Mr. David Roberts the artist, and he writes extremely well, and his descriptions proclaim him a good observer."—Examiner.

"We were unprepared for the scriptural and historical criticism with which Mr. Kinnear so modestly, and yet so judiciously, intersperses his narrative; evincing a mind well acquainted with biblical learning, and the works of commentators which bear upon the ancient inquiries it involves."—Literary Gazette.

A SERIES OF PICTURESQUE VIEWS ON THE RIVER NIGER, sketched during Lander's last Visit in 1832-33. By Commander WILLIAM ALLEN, R.N. Published under the Auspices of the Society for the Extinction of the Slave Trade, and for the Colonization of Africa. Imperial 4to, 25s.

"The Author of this little work, who is about to take a part in this honourable mission (the Civilization of Africa), hopes that an endeavour to delineate the features of the country, and the manners of the people, may not at this time prove unacceptable."

"The sketches were made on the spot during Lander's expedition, which he accompanied, by order of the Admiralty, for the purpose of making a survey of the river; and while he would claim some indulgence for them, on the plea of their having been taken when he was suffering severely from the effect of the climate, he takes confidence from the goodness of the cause, and from the high auspices under which he appears before the public."—Extract from the Author's Preface.

XXV.

WASHINGTON. By M. GUIZOT. Translated from the French by HENRY REEVE. Post 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"M. Guizot does not come forward with the conceited air of one who would force his views from a vanity in originating them, but simply gives his convictions; being impressive because he is himself impressed with their truth—eloquent, because he himself feels the grandeur of his subject. Admiring his hero to the highest degree, he is sober in his enthusiasm; having viewed the fortunes of a vast country, he appreciates the influence of Washington, and, after carefully weighing all circumstances, speaks with the admiration of one whose reason is convinced, not of one whose intellect is dazzled."—Times.
